INHS Newsletter – July 2018

Dear INHS members,

Welcome to the INHS July newsletter. In this newsletter we include new additions to the online library and interesting events around the world. We also would like to make you aware of two upcoming hate crime conferences taking place in September this year.

Call for Papers: International Conference "Breaking the barriers: Improving access to justice for victims of anti-LGBT hate crimes", 20 & 21 September, 2018 – Sofia, Bulgaria

The University of Brescia (Italy), Lambda Warsaw (Poland) and GLAS Foundation (Bulgaria), together with partners from 10 European countries, are excited to announce the international conference "Breaking the barriers: Improving access to justice for victims of anti-LGBT hate crime", organized within the framework of the EU-funded project Come Forward. More information can be found here and proposals are accepted by Monday, July 23, 2018.

Fachtagung: "Gewalt gegen Minderheiten" [Conference: "Violence against minorities"], 20 & 21 September, 2018 – Jena, Germany

The IDZ (Institut für Demokratie und Zivilgesellschaft) is hosting a two-day hate crime conference in Jena, Germany. The conference languages will be German and English and the "International Perspectives" session will be in English with German translation. More information can be found here and please register by July, 31st, 2018.
