

INHS Newsletter – January 2017

Dear INHS members,

Happy New Year to you all!

This month we bring you a call for papers, an array of events, inspiring us to get involved in a wide range of important issues, and links to numerous new publications discussing a variety of topics; including more discussion around the ever-growing use of social media in disseminating hatred.

If you think that anything is missing from the website (especially information on events being held outside of Europe) please do let us know by contacting us. We would also like to encourage our members to contribute to the blog. So if you would like to write something for us please get in touch!

Call for Papers

PRAEGER PRESS: HATE CRIMES AS DOMESTIC TERRORISM

Pathways into Jihadism, Gay Bashing, and Groups of Hate

The editors of the Hate Crimes as Domestic Terrorism book series is soliciting chapter submissions for the above titled book to be published by Praeger Press.

Empirical research papers, theoretical articles, and discussion manuscripts ranging in length from 9000 to 15,000 words are sought. All works must be original productions without significant portions of the submission published elsewhere. Examples of topics include: Conceptual and theoretical issues in hate group recruitment; Efforts to counter hate recruitment propaganda; Process of desistance from a hate-based lifestyle; Examination of the motives and methods of stand-alone terrorists; Advertising of hate identity; History of recruitment and membership in ideological and cultural terrorist networks; And other topics related to how people are recruited, indoctrinated, and leave hate crimes and terrorist organizations.

If interested, please submit a 3-page abstract by February 1, 2017 and send toinfo@H2Hseries.com or complete the form at <http://h2hseries.wpengine.com/submission/>.
