

INHS Newsletter – March 2018

Dear INHS members,

Welcome to the INHS March newsletter. This month's newsletter includes many new additions to the online library, interesting events around the world, and a forthcoming funding opportunity from the National Institute of Justice (USA) described further below.

Thank you also to everyone who has submitted an abstract to the INHS conference in Canada in May. Don't forget to register if you haven't done so already. We look forward to seeing you there.

Funding opportunity

INHS members may be interested in a forthcoming solicitation from the National Institute of Justice (NIJ). For the solicitation, Research on Hate Crimes, NIJ seeks applications for the funding of research and program evaluation to:

1. understand the motivations and pathways to hate crime offending;
2. determine whether programs targeted at hate crime offenders are effective at reducing reoffending;
3. determine whether programs that work with victims of hate crimes and their communities are effective at reducing the harms caused by hate crimes; and
4. provide information that will improve investigative and prosecutorial outcomes.

Information about all of NIJ's forthcoming solicitations is available here:

<https://www.nij.gov/funding/Pages/forthcoming.aspx>. Once released, you will be able to download the solicitation here: <https://www.nij.gov/funding/Pages/current.aspx>.
