INHS Newsletter – October 2020

Dear INHS members,

Welcome to our October 2020 newsletter. The newsletter provides a monthly snapshot of international publications that have recently been added to the INHS website and information about upcoming events occurring this month. We would also like to encourage you to get in contact with us if you would like to submit a contribution to our INHS blog. All blogs can be found here

Call for Papers for INHS Biennial Conference 'Hate, Democracy, and Human Rights':

The International Network for Hate Studies and the OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights are delighted to announce plans for our rescheduled conference, which was postponed due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The conference will now be held fully online December 2nd-3rd 2020, and we look forward to engaging with colleagues and friends in this new but exciting format. We will be accepting papers until Friday 23 October 2020. Details can be found here.

New Anti-Hate Initiative:

The Alan Turing Institute's Online Hate Research Hub collates and organises resources for research and policymaking on online hate and can be found here.

Job Opportunity:

The OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights is looking for two Independent Consultants for their Enhancing Stakeholder Awareness and Resources on Hate Crime Victim Support (EStAR) Project, one to develop a "Model Guidance on Individual Needs Assessment (INA) for Hate Crime Victims" and another to develop a "Model Guidance on Sensitive and Respectful Treatment of Hate Crime Victims in the Criminal Justice System". Find more information and submit your application in the links above. Deadline for applications is 12 October 2020.
