NEW! INHS Spotlight Seminar

As part of our ongoing commitment to creating meaningful dialogue, we are proud to launch the Spotlight Seminar Series. This new initiative brings regional and thematic conversations to a global audience, offering a unique opportunity to engage with experts and key stakeholders on pressing issues related to hate studies.

Spotlight on . . . Canada!

Join us for the first in the series, featuring some of Canada's leading scholars and practitioners in the field of Hate Studies. The Centre on Hate, Bias and Extremism is pleased to partner on this webinar that aims to provide an introduction to some of the current trends, policy and practice around hate in Canada.

This event will be recorded and made available on the INHS website for later viewing, as well as in podcast format.
