

INHS Newsletter – September 2025

Dear INHS members,

Welcome to our September 2025 newsletter. The newsletter provides a monthly snapshot of international publications that have recently been added to the INHS website and information about upcoming events occurring this month. We would also like to encourage you to get in contact with us if you would like to submit a contribution to our INHS blog. All blogs can be found here.

Remember to follow us on our new social media channels:

Call for Academic Reviewers:

Special Section for the South African Journal of Psychology (SAJP)

The Network are looking for Academic Reviewers for contributions to the forthcoming INHS Special Section in the SAJP.

The Special Section will contain contributions from a range of individuals who presented at the most recent INHS Conference in Cape Town, South Africa.

We are seeking academic colleagues willing to contribute to the peer-review process for the Special Section, helping to ensure the rigor and quality of papers.

Deadline for finalised papers is Monday 8th September and the review process will commence as papers are submitted.

The Special Section paper contributions will address the following topics:

- Hate Studies: Looking back, driving forward
- Can Organised Psychology answer the Call to contribute globally to the prevention of hate victimisation?
- Current perspectives from the Global North.
- Current perspectives from the Global South: Boundaries between freedom of expression and hate speech: The case of struggle songs.

- Leading voices in Hate Studies from across the globe.
- Affirmative praxis as a remedy against hate: The role of LGBTQI+ Practice Guidelines for (South) African Psychology and mental healthcare professionals.
- Xenophobic hate: Exploring diverse (South) African perspectives.

If you are interested in being put forward as a reviewer for any of the above papers please contact katie.mcbride@plymouth.ac.uk stating your interest and details of which specific paper, if applicable.

Online Training Course:

Facing Facts will be conducting their online training course 'Understanding and Responding to Hate Speech' 28 October – 20 November 2025. Registration deadline is 8 September 2025. Find more information and register here.
