

INHS Newsletter – March 2026

Dear INHS members,

Welcome to our March newsletter. The newsletter provides a monthly snapshot of international publications that have recently been added to the INHS website and information about upcoming events occurring this month. We would also like to encourage you to get in contact with us if you would like to submit a contribution to our INHS blog. All blogs can be found here.

Remember to follow us on our new social media channels:

- LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/company/international-network-for-hate-studies/>
- Bluesky: @inthatestudies.bsky.social

A Message from the New Editorial Team of the Journal of Hate Studies:

We are thrilled to announce the Journal of Hate Studies is accepting submissions for articles and reviews and will be publishing new, fee-free, open-access issues for the first time since 2023. We are grateful to Gonzaga University for their continued support of the journal and the Center for the Study of Hate.

Respecting the interdisciplinary nature of the field, JHS is open to publishing original content as well as reviews of traditional academic and artistic works, digital new media and public works focused on hate and hate-related content.

We are inviting your participation to assist in this new iteration of the JHS. Here are some opportunities to help:

- Spread the word! Please share links to our revised website: <https://repository.gonzaga.edu/jhs/>
- Submit a manuscript for publication consideration. Find out more here: Submission Guide
- Consider serving as a peer reviewer. Tell us your areas of expertise. In our efforts to make publishing decisions in a timely manner, we are looking for individuals who are able to provide reviews within forty days of receipt. Find out more here: The Peer Review Process
- Contact us at jhs@gonzaga.edu with your interest in writing a review of a book, a documentary, a serial podcast, an exhibit, or related work.
- Help us stay current with recent and upcoming work in the field at jhs@gonzaga.edu
