

INHS Newsletter – September 2026

Dear INHS members,

Welcome to our September newsletter. The newsletter provides a monthly snapshot of international publications that have recently been added to the INHS website and information about upcoming events occurring this month. We would also like to encourage you to get in contact with us if you would like to submit a contribution to our INHS blog. All blogs can be found here.

Remember to follow us on our new social media channels:

Hate Studies: The Global North meets the Global South — SAJP special section now online

The special section arising from the 2024 INHS Biennial Conference, Dynamics of Hate: Examining Interdisciplinary Perspectives — the first INHS conference held in the Southern Hemisphere, co-hosted by the INHS, UNISA and the Psychological Society of South Africa — is now publishing in the South African Journal of Psychology.

Guest edited by Prof Juan A. Nel (UNISA) and Dr Katie McBride (University of Plymouth), the section brings together leading and emerging scholars across psychology, criminology, law and media studies to put Global North and Global South perspectives on hate into direct conversation.

All articles are open access and available now via OnlineFirst ahead of print publication:

- Hate Studies: Looking Back, Driving Forward — Mark Walters, Garth Stevens & Barbara Perry
- Beyond State Solutions: Confronting the Contradictions in Hate Studies — Timothy Bryan, Katie McBride & Amanda Haynes
- Combating Hate Victimisation: Current and Future Contributions from Organised Psychology in Global and African Settings — Hanlie van Wyk & Juan A. Nel
- Hate Through the Lens of Cognitive Dissonance — Jan de Vries, Leda Tortora & Arun Bokde

- Boundaries Between Freedom of Expression and Hate Speech: The Case of Struggle Songs — Current Perspectives from the Global South — Joanna Botha, Liz Gunner, Sisanda Nkoala & Ben Winks
- Understanding Xenophobia in South Africa: Psychological Drivers of Perpetration and Barriers to Victim Reporting — Zindi Venter, Abayomi O. Olaseni & Segun Emmanuel Adewoye
